

When Your Closest Neighbor Isn't Human

Resource List

Books on Co-existing with Wildlife

Living With Wildlife by The California Center for Wildlife with Diana Landau and Shelley Stump, Sierra Club Books

Wild Neighbors, The Humane Approach to Living with Wildlife by The Humane Society of the United States, Fulcrum Publishing

Books on Animal I.D. and Behavior

Animal Tracks by Olaus J. Murie, Peterson Field Guide Series

Stokes Guide to Animal Tracking and Behavior by Donald & Lillian Stokes, Stokes Nature Guides

Internet Resources

The University of Illinois Extension has a website called Living with Wildlife in Illinois (<http://web.extension.uiuc.edu/wildlife/>)

The USDA Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) has a number of publications on wildlife issues. Go to the APHIS home page (www.aphis.usda.gov), click on Newsroom and then under related topics click on publications.

The Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals—Angell Animal Medical Center has an interactive website (<http://www.mspca.org/intruderexcluder/>) to help identify and resolve wildlife damage issues.

The McHenry County Conservation District (MCCD) has a number of brochures on living with wildlife as well as links to other resources. This website is found at www.mccd.org. Questions can be e-mailed to wildlife@mccd.org

McHenry County
CONSERVATION DISTRICT